Any one of the foregoing methods of giving notice shall be sufficient, but it shall not be necessary to give notice in more than one way. Whenever a territory, county or district is quarantined under the provisions of this act, all local premises, cattle and sheep therein shall thereby become quarantined without designating them separately.

Sec. 26. The chairman of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and duties which the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is authorized by this act to do.

Sec. 27. This act is cumulative of all existing statutes with reference to the quarantining of sheep and cattle or premises upon which the same are located, and the eradication of sheep and cattle scabies and shall not be construed as repealing the same unless in direct conflict therewith.

Sec. 28. This act shall be liberally construed and if any section thereof be declared invalid, the remaining parts of law shall not be affected thereby, and it is the intent of the Legislature to preserve any and every portion of said act if possible.

Sec. 29. The fact that there is now no adequate law in this State providing for the eradication and cure of sheep and cattle scabies, and the great damage done to the livestock from such disease, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and the same is hereby suspended and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The following House bill, introduced today, was laid before the House, read first time, and referred to the appropriate committee, as follows:

By Mr. Pearce:

H. B. RECESS.

On motion of Mr. Pope, the House, at 12 o'clock m., took recess to 2 o'clock p. m. today.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House met at 2 o'clock p. m. and was called to order by Mr. Satterwhite, who was in the chair when the House recessed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 2 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

H. B. No. 2, A bill to be entitled "An Act appropriating certain sum of money for the support and maintenance of the various State Departments,"

On its passage to engrossment, with amendment by Mr. Bonham to the section of the bill relating to the Comptroller's Department, pending.

Mr. Harman offered the following substitute for the amendment:

Amend House bill No. 2, page 18, after line 22, by adding line 22a, "appropriating out of general revenue fund $15,000 for the year ending August 31, 1928, and $15,000 for the year ending August 31, 1929, for the investigation of alleged infractions of Arts. 5091 and 5096, Revised Statutes, 1925, taking testimony and general enforcement of the provisions of said Act."

Paired.

Mr. Runge (present), who would vote "nay," with Mr. Farrar (absent), who would vote "yea."

Mr. Loftin moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was adopted and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

Reason for Vote.

I voted against the amendment to appropriate $5000 for enforcement of the Dean Law because I think that small sum is a "penny wise and pound foolish" appropriation. If that is all that is needed, we are nearing the ideal in enforcement of the Dean Law. I really think that this was offered as a means of satisfying those good ladies who have labored so diligently without being fully informed as to what they were doing. I here and now go on record as favoring enforcement of the Dean Law, but we cannot do so by these small means.

FAULK.
